

CASTERTON

The Australian Premier Working Dog Auction 2022

Island Park – Sunday 12th June

Demonstrations from 9.30am

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Casterton Kelpie Association is the proud organising committee for the renowned Australian Premier Working Dog Auction which was established in 1996 by the local Apex Club.

In 2021 the committee turned over a total of $3.2mil since that first auction and sold the highest priced working dog for $35,200, a new World Record.

Expressions of Interest entries for this year's auction are now open, with an official opening of entries on 28th March through our online platform and closing date of 13th May.

Please read the information and 'Conditions of Entry' carefully

Complete the online Entry Form

Payment of $100 per dog which is non-refundable if dog is accepted into the auction.

Send through your link to your YouTube videos or email the video to us for uploading to the Auction website, Facebook page and AuctionsPlus platform.

VIDEO'S – the value of a video cannot be underestimated, so we strongly recommend a YouTube video for the greatest exposure for your dog prior to the auction.

Please refer to the Working Standards for category criteria.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Jarrod Alcorn, Auction Co-Ordinator 0431 676 151 or Rob Pilmore 0408 555 574.

All email enquiries to auction@castertonkelpieassociation.com.au

Sincerely

Casterton Kelpie Association Inc.